Quote & History Tidbit

William Barclay

“The tragedy of life and of the world is not that men do not know God; the tragedy is that, knowing Him, they still insist on going their own way.”

Born: December, 1907 Wick, Scotland

Professor Barclay was a Scottish author, television and radio host, minister at the Church of Scotland and Professor Emeritus of Divinity and Biblical Criticism at the University of Glasgow. A self proclaimed universalist stating “I believe that in the end all men will be gathered into the love of God.” A pacifist, announcing that “war is mass murder,” that dedicated his life to authoring the best biblical scholarship available to the average reader entitled Daily Study Bible, a 17 commentary set of the New Testament now known as the New Daily Study Bible series. Some of his authored works are; The Apostles' Creed, The Parables of Jesus, Discovering Jesus and The Mind of Jesus where he states his aim was “to make the figure of Jesus more vividly alive, so that we may know him better and love him more.” The majority of his works are still available today.
