

Tell Me a Story

Engaging, half-day programs planned and implemented by 2 Speech-Language Pathologists using story telling as a central focus for developing age-appropriate skills

Budding StoryTellers

Ages 5-6
June 23-27
9am-12pm

- Fun activities to retell and create their own stories, including games, crafts, and dramatic exploration
- Social skills development
- Language skill development
- Author study: Julia Donaldson (The Gruffalo, Room on the Broom, and more!)

Storytelling Champs

Ages 7-10
June 30-July 3
9am-12pm

- Hone cunning and wit as we explore “Trickster Tales” and then build a story together
- Language skills development focusing on story elements, idioms/abstract language, comparing and contrasting story elements, and more
- Social Skills and teamwork

Meta Masters

Ages 11-14
June 30-July 3
1pm-4pm

- An exploration of what makes stories interesting using a variety of media, including photography, books, art, music, and videos
- Language skills include metalinguistic discussions about story-telling components including story elements, tone, and delivery, culminating in retelling a chosen, favorite story

Programming specific questions may be directed to 2kdllc@gmail.com.
We can't wait to see you soon!

