

Giving vs. Grabbing

Giving passes things on;
grabbing stops the flow.

Giving fosters and promotes;
grabbing clutches and chokes.
Giving nurtures and develops;
grabbing hinders and obstructs.
Giving is gracious and generous;
grabbing is violent and greedy.

Giving looks to
others;
grabbing sees only
self.

Giving contributes to
life;
grabbing generates
strife.

Giving is a way of living;
grabbing is the path to death.

Giving is aware;
grabbing is wary.
Giving shares;
grabbing hoards.
Giving smiles;
grabbing grovels.

Giving facilitates;
grabbing debilitates.

Giving expands;
grabbing contracts.

You give what you
receive;
you grab in order
to take.

Both donor and recipient
benefit by giving;
no one gains
when you grab.

Giving is a sign of
mercy;
grabbing is a step to
misery.

Giving, you buy into
eternal life;
grabbing, you sell
your soul.

God granted us life
as a gift
for giving--
not grabbing!
