Jimmy Buffett's Songs You Don't Know By Heart

Although this story is from way back in 2020, it was new to me and I thought it might be new to some of you.

Most Parrotheads know that Jimmy Buffett's biggest and most well-known songs are featured on a greatest hits album called Songs You Know By Heart. Now introducing... Songs You Don't Know By Heart.

It's not a record, but a series of videos his daughter Delaney has filmed with him at home.

Delaney Buffett has been directing and documenting stories behind 15 songs that have rarely been played in concert. They all have a story behind them, and Delaney, who has a background in film, helps to tell those stories.

"The concept was to film dad and give intimate looks into songs and go down memory lane," Delaney told Newsweek. "I sit down one-on-one with him and get an unplugged version of these songs. Not only to jog his memory, but also mine to remember the stories he would tell. Some songs he knew off cuff, and others it took some time for him to remember. It's a mix of mostly popular deep cuts and songs that resonate with people familiar with a lot of the older albums." The videos are available on Jimmy Buffett's official Facebook and Instagram pages. They are also available on jimmybuffett.com. They are now also available on CD featuring 15 new acoustic recordings of some of your favorite songs! These songs were voted on by fans, and have rarely (if ever!) been played on tour.

Margaritaville Beach Resort Officially Opens in Nassau

The Bahamas' newest resort is officially open.

The highly-anticipated Margaritaville Beach Resort Nassau held its ribbon-cutting ceremony in the heart of downtown Nassau recently.

It's the first-ever Margaritaville resort in The Bahamas, set at The Pointe, the new luxury destination in the capital.

The $350 million project is a significant infusion of energy to the waterfront in downtown Nassau, a city that has been seeing a renaissance in recent years.

The property joins the already-open One Particular Harbour, an adjacent Margaritaville-branded residential resort.

“Just as The Bahamas is coming back, the City of Nassau and the Nassau Waterfront are coming back,” said Bahamas Prime Minister Dr. Hubert Minnis. “The historic City of Nassau and downtown are being transformed before our very eyes.”

The resort, which is managed by Aimbridge Hospitality, has a total of 300 rooms, along with 11 food and dining concepts, from the JWB Prime Steak and Seafood to the Graycliff Sky Lounge.

It's the newest in a growing pipeline of Margaritaville-branded resorts across the Caribbean.

SUMMERZCOOL POOL PARTY

Mermaid Lagoon at Casa de Noel

Orange County Parrot Heads phlocked over to Mermaid Lagoon at Casa Noel for a day of fun in the sun while chilling by the pool sipping cocktails, hanging out with friends and listening to music provided by DJ Dave Jensen. Did I forget to mention? Lot's of Jell-O shots! Thanks Noel for hosting!

Celebration Of Life - Debbie Stephens

On August 21st OC Parrot Heads gathered at Yorba Regional Park to celebrate the life of a very special person that we all loved and cared for, Debbie Stephens. The first time I met Debbie, she had a great big smile and a plate of Jell-O shots to offer. Although I hadn't gotten much time to know her I could see how special a person she was. She shared her years of club posters with me and I could see the amount of effort she put into people and the OC Parrot Head Club. She fought hard to fight against ALS and raise awareness to the cause. She was an inspiration to all of us. Debbie, you will forever be in our hearts.

July Phlocking at Heroes & Legends

Like birds of a feather, OC Parrot Heads phlocked together on July 31st gathering back packs and school supplies for the Boys and Girls Club of Anaheim. We collected over 50 back packs and loads of school supplies! Thanks to Alec Bauer for providing music and thanks for the great turnout to support such an important cause.

Meet Bob Karwin....

Bob Karwin began his music career in Boston, Massachusetts on June 4, 1990, playing to drunken mobs in the Irish pubs and college bars. He quickly made a name for himself in Beantown by being able to tame an unruly crowd fired by Guinness and Jack Daniels using only his guitar and a microphone.

In 1993, Bob packed up his Jeep and moved to sunny San Diego. His blend of humor and thoughtful songwriting struck a chord with Southern Californians and he began to develop a following at his rowdy one man shows. Bob is now a full fledged Californian, strolling the beaches and vowing to never shovel a driveway ever again.

Bob has played along side of many members of Jimmy Buffett’s band, the Coral Reefers, including Greg “Fingers” Taylor, Amy Lee, Deb McColl, T.C. Mitchell, Doyle Grisham, and Jay Spell. He has been a featured act at many national “parrothead” events, including Phins to the West (Laughlin, NV), Migration (Las Vegas, NV), Laid Back Attack (Seattle, WA), Six String Music (New Orleans, LA), Atlanta Parrothead Cruise, Angels in Tropical Shirts (Lake Charles, LA) and Meeting of Minds (Key West, FL) to the list. You should also ask him about the time he opened for Barenaked Ladies in Anaheim, CA. Now that’s a good story!

Bob was the 2016 Trop Rock Music Awards Entertainer of the Year as well as the 2016 Temecula Valley Music Awards Best Acoustic. Bob’s latest album, “The Miles Between” was released in May of 2020. You can hear his songs online at Apple Music

Boat Drink of The Month

The Yellow Bird Cocktail

The yellow bird is a fun rum cocktail that is filled with tropical fruit. While the primary recipe features orange juice, pineapple, and banana also appear in many variations on the yellow bird. It's a drink that is a hit on the beaches of the Caribbean, though you will be hard-pressed to find two yellow birds made the same way.

As is common in tropical cocktails, the yellow bird uses both light rum and dark rum. A touch of Galliano (anise and vanilla liqueur) is added to bring in another layer of flavor and make things a bit more interesting. It's a fabulous flavor combination, and you'll likely enjoy every sip of it.

No matter how you mix it, the yellow bird makes a great summertime cocktail.

1/2 ounce freshly squeezed lime juice, from 1/2 lime

1 1/4 ounces orange juice

1 ounce light rum

1 ounce dark rum

1/4 ounce Galliano L'Autentico liqueur

Maraschino cherry, for garnish, optional

Fresh mint sprig, for garnish, optional

Gather the ingredients, Squeeze the juice of half a lime into a cocktail shaker with ice, Add the orange juice, both rums, and Galliano, Shake well, Strain into a collins glass filled with crushed ice, Garnish with a cherry and a sprig of mint, if you like.

Parrot Heads Helping Parrot Heads

The Lone Palm Foundation is the charitable arm of Parrot Heads in Paradise (PHIP), Inc.

The foundation exists to support Parrot Heads and the social and environmental needs and concerns within their communities.

By supporting our community and its environs on a local level, striving to preserve the world's ecosystem for generations to follow, exuding genuine concern for humanity by performing charitable actions and giving back to our fellow man in need through our beneficent aid, our philanthropic goals can be achieved. If you need help, and you are a member of a sanctioned PHIP Club, contact The Lone Palm Foundation, lonelapmfoundation.org
