Biography

Kitty was born on January 28, 1934 to the late William and Margaret (Hessling) Eppenbrock. Kitty worked for many years in the Huron County Office of Superintendents, Huron County Friend of the Court and Sacred Heart Parish. Kitty was always willing to help when she could, donating her time, talents and food. She never refused a trip to a casino, or a game of cards with family or friends. She looked forward to meeting and visiting friends for lunch and family dinners on Sunday. Her faith in God was very strong, which helped her through any challenges she faced.
