Happy Weekend Crusaders!

So many wonderful things happened on our campus this past week! We celebrated “Read Across America Week” with fun dress up days and great activity days. Thank you to Mrs. Rosey and Mr. Ramos for putting it all together for our Crusaders! We also began our Lenten season with our Ash Wednesday mass and celebrated our first Stations of the Cross for the year. Seeing all of our students respond with reverence and respect during our Lenten retreat and being open to learning more about God’s true sacrifice is a true blessing.

As we enter our third and final trimester of this year, I wanted to remind all about a few important items:

1. Please make sure to call in as soon as you can to let the school office know if your student (s) will be absent daily. It is necessary for our records and safety protocols.
2. Tardies are becoming a bigger issue at this point of the year. Every minute counts in the classroom no matter the time of year, but especially as we are entering the final stretch.
3. Don’t forget that your participation in all of your students' daily activity on and off campus is crucial and our staff appreciates all that you do to support our efforts in fundraising, volunteering, etc.

We are truly grateful and appreciative of our SRM families, community members, and those that support Catholic Education. May God continue to bless SRM and all of you!

Please make sure to read all the way through this “Crusader Communication”...lots of info.

Blessings,

Mrs. Hodges
