Re: Clark v. Harper Hospital, et al.
Case No: 03-340704 NH
Our File: 7169

Dear Ms. Clark:

Please be advised that on Monday, May 16, 2005, the evaluators recommended an award of $225,000.00 to be paid to you by Defendants. Both sides have twenty-eight days from the date of evaluation to decide if they want to accept the Evaluators' award. Neither side is compelled to accept the award. However, if both sides do accept, then the case is over and is settled for the evaluation amount. If either side rejects, your case will proceed to trial. If you decide to reject the evaluation award, you must prevail at trial in an amount ten percent greater than the evaluation award, otherwise you may be personally responsible for the defendants' costs and attorney fees.

Though your formal acceptance or rejection is not due until Monday, June 13, 2005, I would appreciate you notifying our offices of your decision no later than Thursday, June 9, 2005. Such a timely response will provide me enough time to file a formal written acceptance or rejection with the Case Evaluation Tribunal.

Realizing you may still have some unanswered questions concerning your case evaluation award and the consequences of any acceptance or rejection, I urge you to call Mr. Weglarz should you wish to further discuss the matter.

Very truly yours,

Fieger, Fieger, Kenney & Johnson, P.C.
