New Business

- Open Fuel Bids: Selectmen opened and reviewed fuel bids received from CN Brown. The bid for #2 heating oil was $2.2631/ gallon, and for diesel was $2.33/gallon. Selectmen voted 3-0 to accept C.N. Brown bids for number 2 heating oil and diesel.
- Sand Pond damage last Saturday: Dwight Warren went to the beach this past Saturday, the pillars on the beach were broken, pool noodle delineating the swimming area were torn off, signs were ripped down. The Sheriff department needs to be notified and has to witness it happening when there is a problem. Will contact the Sheriff office to get clarification on the issues and if they can enforce the Sand Pond ordinance and town rules.
- Trash pickup at Sand Pond: Selectmen office got quotes on trash pickup at Sand Pond. R.W. Herrick was contacted and submitted a price of $107.53 for one pickup per week. Mellen's submitted a quote of $100 per month, and emptying the barrels once a week or more if needed. Casella was contacted, and they do not empty barrels, only their own dumpsters. The Selectmen discussed and voted 3-0 to accept Mellen's quote.

Old Business

- Review Cumberland County Contract Addendum: Selectmen reviewed the addendum provided by Jim Gailey at Cumberland County. The addendum provided a cost for the 2nd and 3rd year of the contract, which was not given in the original contract. Selectmen reviewed and accepted the addendum. The addendum was signed.
- Camera Update – Chris Sanborn will be boosting the existing wifi in the office so the cameras will hopefully work better and more dependable. Also, he is adding a guest login for people to access the wifi on a separate router.
- Planning Board– Selectmen reviewed and discussed Josiah Pierce re-appointment as a Planning Board Member. Selectmen voted 2-1 and re-appointed Jo for three-year term.
