

Audia, John

John Audia, 83, of Ubly, died Thursday, June 28, 2001, at Marlette Community Hospital, after a long illness. He was born on Feb. 17, 1918, in Bingamon, W. Va. to Sam and Maria (Marra) Audia. He married Roze Horvath on Nov. 3, 1937, in Oakland, Md. John served in the United States Marine Corps. He worked for Michigan Abrasive in Detroit for 20 years. John and his family then moved to Ubly where he dairy farmed. For a few years, until the plant closed, John worked for Evan's Manufacturing in Gagetown. John worked in coal mines for five years with an eighth grade education. He completed school and received his high school diploma along with his children. Mr. Audia is survived by his wife, Roze; children, Salvatore J. Audia, of Ubly, Maria Christina Audia of St. Clair Shores, Theresa R. Cramer of Mt. Clemens, Joseph R. Audia of Ubly; grandchildren, Ann Marle Krueger, Lisa Ward, John Audia, Scott Audia, and Amber Audia; great-grandchildren, John, Zach, Crystal, Brandon, and Austin; brother and sisters, Russell Audia, Christina Hungate, Teany Garnetti, Virginia Kapcia, Mary Abbruzzino; many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by brothers, Frank Audia and Joseph Audia; sisters, Josephine Bonasso, Katy Paris, and Rose Guarascio. Cremation has taken place. Arrangements by Kranz Funeral Home in Cass City.