

LINTON SELLEN'S 2019

MASTERING LEADERSHIP

7-DAY LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

THIS TRANSFORMATIONAL PROGRAM WILL TEACH YOU HOW TO BE AN EFFECTIVE LEADER IN YOUR ORGANIZATION. THE LESSONS YOU WILL LEARN ARE SO PROFOUND THAT IT WILL ALSO IMPACT EVERY RELATIONSHIP IN YOUR LIFE; AS A COACH, A COMMUNITY LEADER, A PARENT, EVERYTHING.

WHAT PRINCE GEORGE BUSINESS LEADERS ARE SAYING ABOUT THIS PROGRAM:

"The Linton Leadership course was outstanding. We can't wait to send more of our supervisors through it!! We really liked that it was spread out over a couple days per week as it minimized the impact on us and the mill. The cost was very reasonable, food was outstanding and venue great!

We've already started spreading the word."

*Rob Novak, President
Dunkley Lumber*

"...not just another seminar – but, bona fide TRAINING in leadership applicable in both your professional and personal life"

*Shawn Bells, VP Operations
Pacific BioEnergy*

Pacific BioEnergy

"We not only found it helpful, but practical. We were warned that the content might challenge traditional teaching and practice but we found that it made a lot of sense and it works!

At a critical time in our world when leadership is lacking, Mastering Leadership training is refreshing, convicting, and provides solid confidence to leaders positioned at every level of authority.

Thank you for inviting us to participate in this training, and for making a difference in our lives."

*Ruben Gaytan, Human Resources Manager
Babine and Decker Lake Forest Products*

Hampton

"The Linton Sellen's Mastering Leadership Course was by far the most beneficial course I have ever taken. His classroom approach to leadership was captivating! There is no question that after attending Linton's course, one could not be a better leader. I highly recommend this course for anyone in a leadership role."

MASTERING LEADERSHIP

Course Description

This program is different than any other leadership course. The content is not the usual content. Every topic has learning that is unique to this program. Come ready for new ideas that may challenge your conceptions of leadership.

The approach is different, too. At this no-nonsense course, participation is always welcome, but never required. You will experience an informal atmosphere where leadership is discussed in a practical way that relates to the real world.

No silly games, no team building exercises, no role-playing. Just learning how to LEAD.

There are two things we hear over and over from participants:

1. This course is different, and
2. It is the best they have ever taken

This course will teach you:

- Why leadership works
- What leadership really is
- What qualifies you to be a leader
- Myths regarding motivation, and what the truth is
- How authority works, how (and how not) to use it
- The 4 causes of performance problems, and
- How to identify them
- The difference between performance and results
- When (and when not to) discipline
- To stop expecting HR to do your job
- How chain of command works, and how it doesn't
- How to build teams
- How leaders should communicate
- How to develop your employees using sense & meaning

Linton Sellen is an experienced manager, trainer, and trainer of leaders. Linton Sellen has won awards for his leadership, his presentation skills, and his training ability. He received his post-secondary education from the Faculty of Management and the Faculty of Law at the University of Manitoba. He was selected to represent the Faculty of Law in national moot court competition, receiving the highest individual score on the undefeated U of M team.

After receiving his Call to the Bar, he joined Canada's Air Force. Linton demonstrated his ability as a leader by finishing 1st out of 110 on the demanding thirteen week officers' leadership course, as selected by both his peers and his superiors. He earned his commission as an officer, his pilot wings, and the highest instructional category available. He was put in charge of training and evaluating other Air Force supervisors and instructors, and authored the manual for their use. As the head of pilot training at an operational squadron, he was responsible for teaching crew commanders how to lead their teams on operational missions. Linton has acquired years of first hand practical experience as a manager, coach, leader, and leadership consultant.

For the last 18 years, Linton has conducted on-site and classroom training of managers and supervisors and provided leadership consultation to businesses and other organizations through the company Training Plus. He is noted for his unique, original, yet practical insights into leadership. He specializes in the area of leadership development and has developed the Mastering Leadership Course to address the issues faced by the leader in the modern workplace. The training has earned rave reviews from leaders in organizations across Canada.
