

Miller, Virginia G.

Virginia G. Miller, 72, passed away Monday evening, June 21, 2004, at her home after a lengthy battle with cancer. She was born in Colfax Township on December 13, 1931 at the home of her parents, the late Roy and Edith (Long) McNeil. Virginia attended McDowell School, Bad Axe High School Class of 1949, was a Taylor University graduate and taught home economics at Pigeon High School for several years. In 1956, she married Donald Wayne Miller at the First Baptist Church in Bad Axe. He survives her. Also surviving are her daughter, Jan Wessels, and her husband, Brent; three sons, Eric and his wife, Beckie, Ked and his wife, Brenda, and Lex and his wife, Lisa; eight grandchildren, Richelle (Miller) Roth and her husband, Brad, Krista Miller, Cody and Taryn Wessels, Heidi and Kyle Miller, Brennan and Galen Miller; two sisters, Elaine Lindell and her husband, Maurice, of Port Townsend, Washington, and Verneta McNeil, of Dunnellon, Florida; a niece and a nephew. Virginia had been a Big Sister in Bad Axe and a Recovery volunteer in Bad Axe for several years and a member of the Aim High Farm Bureau. She and her husband loved music and attended many concerts and traveled much. She enjoyed cooking and entertaining, as well as doing crewel and sewing for herself and others. Virginia adored her family and was involved in the Baptist church where she grew up and worshipped many years. She served on several boards there and at the Elkton United Methodist Church where she attended for several years. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. on Thursday, June 24, 2004, at the Elkton United Methodist Church. The Rev. Pete Crawford, pastor, and Chuck Emmert will officiate with burial in Colfax Township Cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Elkton, and after 10 a.m. on Thursday at the church. Memorials may be given to Bay Shore Camp or the family discretionary fund. Those unable to attend may sign the guest book at www.cfcElkton.com.
