Presidents' Message

Get ready to celebrate together,
in person at our long-awaited Holiday Dinner!

The one thing we all learned over the past year-and-a-half is that change happens whether we like it or not. We can resist change by focusing on what we have to give up or we can embrace it and grow!

At this time last year we were very discouraged to realize it would be the first year as Soroptimists that we wouldn't be gathering together to celebrate friendship, goodwill and holiday festivities. But once we learned to adapt to the changing circumstances around us, we saw great possibilities in creating a fun and meaningful gathering on Zoom.

We hoped to celebrate 65 years as Soroptimist International Grosse Pointe in October but had to nix plans as the pandemic continued. So here we are again, planning a holiday and anniversary celebration surrounded by uncertainty and doubt, but only for a moment. For we have decided to embrace uncertainty and forge ahead with a plan to gather together at Assumption to reflect on 65 amazing years as a club and have a joyous holiday event! Granted, it will be with precautions in order to maintain a safe environment for all, which means a vaccination requirement, masks, social distancing, and a limited number of guests. Will it be perfect? Probably not, but it will be different. Because that is what change is all about.

We hope to welcome the new year with the same open mind and accept what happens next with gratitude that it will make us stronger as a club. So, as we celebrate together and ring in a new year (66th for our club), let's keep the words of Socrates in our minds: "The secret of change is to focus all of your energy, not on fighting the old, but building on the new."

— Ellen Chapin and Marya Rosenthal, SIGP Co-presidents

SOROPTIMIST INTERNATIONAL OF GROSSE POINTE & GREATER MACOMB 2021 Virtual 5K Event Proceeds Benefiting: THE JOSEPH PROJECT

On Monday, November 15, members of the Human Trafficking Virtual 5K Event Committee met at Seasons 52 restaurant in Troy to present a check to The Joseph Project for $10,500.

Laurie Jost and I, along with Mona Clugh, Bev Todd, and Jackie Wajer from SI of Greater Macomb presented the check to Kristi Kirschmann, COO, and Nate Knapper, Founder of The Joseph Project.

Upon receiving the donation, Nate and Kristi were excited and gracious.

Positive Images Holiday Service Projects

Shopping for the Children

Please deliver all gifts for the children to Maureen Anthony's home: 524 Thorn Tree Road, Grosse Pointe Woods, between now and December 5. Thank you to members who have already shopped or donated money for shopping! Your continued generosity makes this a worthwhile service project as we assist the women in giving presents to their children!

Delivery of Gifts and Baskets

Gifts and baskets will be delivered to Positive Images at the Coplin Residence Friday morning, December 10. If you would like to load up your car to deliver, text or call Diana at 313-690-1515.

If you have never been to the Positive Images residential facility, this would be a good chance for you to see it! Do consider helping with the transport—it will only take about an hour or so for pick up and delivery.

In case you haven't shopped yet, let's review the guidelines for shopping:

- ◆ Buy a pant and top set, or pant and sweater/fleece, value of around $25
- ◆ Remove all sales tags and place in a gift BAG with some tissue paper.
- ◆ Label the outside of the gift BAG with the mother's name, child's name, age, size of outfit.

AND

- ◆ Buy something that is not clothing and is appropriate for the age of the child, around $25.
- ◆ Remove sales tags and place in a gift BAG.
- ◆ Label the outside of the gift BAG with the mother's name, child's name, age.

Gift Baskets for the Clients

Fifty gift baskets for the women of Positive Images were assembled at Bette Lepouttre's home on November 30. Each basket contained a holiday mug, cookies, nail polish, nail file, holiday towel, scarf, gloves, calendar, ornaments, and a potpourri of items (that we tried to theme) were added! Once the baskets were wrapped in a cellophane bag and tied with a pretty bow, they bloomed into inviting and festive gifts!

Many thanks to all members who donated items for the baskets and who helped assemble. A big THANK YOU to Bette for offering her basement to store and assemble the 50 baskets plus all the items that went in the baskets! It's a big task and a TEAM effort!

Updates on our club's awards — the heart of SIGP

Live Your Dream Award Update – Bette Lepouttre

SIGP has received an abundance of applications! Sixteen in total! They are currently being judged by an awesome team of four. We would love to be able to present more awards, so you can see the importance of raising funds via the For the Love of Wine Raffle (see p. 5)

Virginia Wagner Educational Award – Maddy Colavito & Judi Dara

As noted above, the 2022 Live Your Dream applications have been submitted and now we turn our focus to the Virginia Wagner Educational Award (VWEA). We will award one grant of $3,000. Solicitation letters have been sent to:

- ◆ Colleges and universities in our area
- ◆ Organizations that support women's economic empowerment through education
- ◆ Past applicants who have not won and may wish to re-apply, and to
- ◆ Previous winners who may know of others who would benefit from the award.

Please consider sharing the application information (we highly recommend that our members have our newly revised and fantastic SIGP brochure available at all times!) with someone you know. The award criteria is somewhat different from the LYD award as it is focused on women who are enrolled in a bachelor, master or doctoral program. The application deadline is January 15.

Mentoring for Success – Maddy Colavito & Diana Langlois

Fall semesters or terms are nearing an end and our mentees are busier than ever as they complete assignments and study for finals. Diana and I, as well as our current mentors, are amazed at the dedication of our mentees as some of us have experienced similar struggles. Keep our mentees in your thoughts or prayers as our mentors continue to provide support and encouragement. We look forward to the time when we can face each other without fear of this pandemic and hear personally from our mentors about their LYD and Mentoring for Success experiences.

Above, SIGP Associate Tonesia Nesbitt, one of our 2021 Live Your Dream winners, was blessed with FIVE (5) turkey donations this year! She contacted SIGP President-Elect Karrie Blankenship to see if she knew where she could donate them. Karrie called SIGP Public Awareness Chair Diana Langlois who called Maisha Kenyatta, CEO and Founder of Positive Images. Four of the turkeys and a pumpkin pie were donated to Positive Images clients! It is always a wonderful feeling to help others! THANK YOU Tonesia, for reaching out through Soroptimist!

In blue thread: one XL, one 2XL, one XL force (adult), one 2XL force (adult) and one 3XL force (adult).

Claim yours now by contacting SIGP member Roseanne Horne by text (313-706-1801) or by email: rosewa33@aol.com

All proceeds go directly to our club. Make checks payable to SIGP. Cash, check or credit card (plus a small fee for using a credit card).

Free local delivery; $10 extra for shipping.

"This is my go-to jacke," says one of our members. "When the temps are a little cool, this zippered jacket is the one I always reach for. Plus it goes down to my hips, has pockets, and a hood in case of a sudden rain shower or gust of wind. I'm thinking of getting a second one in case I lose this one...rumor has it that different spirit wear is in the works and these beauties will be history."

Coming in January, a Zoom-based reading program for the Head Start students.

Good news all around for “our” Ghana Girls!

SIGP member Carol Hofer entered “SIGP-Ghana” into a charity raffle and received a card from the charity (Tarahumara Indian Children's Hospital fund) thinking they were asking for another donation. Instead, “SIGP-Ghana” won third prize in the raffle—a check for $1,000 that went directly into our club’s Ghana Fund!

Also, at the very last second of this newsletter’s deadline, Carol received essays from three of the girls who attend St. Anne’s in Ghana. We’re happy to publish them because they illustrate the true meaning of Christmas.

How to Celebrate Christmas (lightly edited)

by Alfredina Beno

I am told we will have a Carols Night celebration in the school before going on vacation.

That day I would like to be Father Christmas.

I would put flowers, soap, and rice in my bag as gifts for the people. I know it will be fun.

At home, I will also clean our house for my brothers and I. I will get some leaves and use them as flowers. On the 24th, I will go with my brothers to church for the mass in the night. On the 25th, which is Christmas Day, I will cook rice and stew, and my brothers and I will eat after the mass. In the evening I will also follow my brothers to greet friends and family members. Singing and dancing is part of our celebration—would you like to join me please!

by Hanifatun Gnani

We celebrate Christmas in the school, that is on the eve of our vacation, when we clean up the place for the Carols Night. The celebration has many roles in it. I choose to be Mother Mary and I dress up like her and be conceived by the Holy Spirit and give birth to Emmanuel which means Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Then we sing and dance together for the newborn king. On 23rd of December we depart to our various homes. I belong to a Muslim family but the little knowledge I had about Christmas I used wisely by decorating the whole house with flowers, leaves and papers which I cut in different shapes on the 24th of December. On the 25th of December, I will follow my friends to church which I know will be full of happiness. I will be very happy if you could join me in New Year’s Celebration.

by Prudence Bigra

We celebrate Christmas in the school on the eve of our vacation. We always clean up and do the arrangement of the place for the Carols Night Celebration where there are many roles and I always choose to be the good shepherd and always dress like the shepherd. Then we sing, dance together and enjoy the Carols Night before going home.

At home I start with my cleaning exercise the 24th December, and we will go for the night mass celebration. After that, the next day, that is 25th December, I always decorate the house with flowers and disco lights around the whole house and then dress and go for the mass celebration. After that I shall follow my friends to their houses and greet their parents and families.

I will like you to join in the New Year Celebration at home and shout with me!

SIGP wishes all the students and teachers at St. Anne’s a happy and healthy New Year!

SIGP member Katherine Baetz shines in the spotlight!

Katy Baetz (Katherine's daughter), Laura McCourt, Marya Rosenthal, Katherine Baetz, and Ellen Chapin.

There is something special about seeing a familiar face performing on a stage. Bunny Perry, aka SIGP member Katherine Baetz, was the adorable ditzy daughter of a VERY dysfunctional family. "A Little Murder Never Hurt Anyone" was both funny and, dare I say gruesome, and the cast obviously enjoyed their time together during the performance. As Katherine said, "When the curtain rises, the actor enters a different world." SIGP Co-presidents Marya, Ellen, and I agreed that it was fun visiting that world.

If you have never visited the Players Playhouse, it is a genuine Detroit treasure. The building is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Combine an important destination with an enjoyable evening of theatre and you are sure to leave smiling. — Laura McCourt, Vice President Soroptimist International of the Americas, Inc., a global volunteer organization that provides women and girls with access to the education and training they need to achieve economic empowerment, welcomes Michelle J. Burnett (at right), of Wyncote, PA., as its new Executive Director/CEO. She replaces Soroptimist's long-time Executive Director/CEO, Elizabeth M. Lucas of Lake Bluff, IL, who resigned in August 2021. Burnett is the first woman of color to hold this position at Soroptimist.
