Improving lives through SOAR

Success and Opportunity At Reading (SOAR!) Adult Literacy is in need of students and volunteer tutors.

Volunteers can have a profound effect on students who are eager to learn to read.

Any adult who would like to volunteer to tutor, or would like to learn to read or to improve his or her current reading skills may contact SOAR! Executive Director Adele Bowden-Purlee at (812) 279-8126 or by email at soardirector@gmail.com.

Students will be matched with volunteer tutors who will meet with them at their convenience, approximately once a week.

SOAR! conducts regular tutor volunteer training sessions as required throughout the year.

StoneGate hosts LCHGS Brain Games

BEDFORD — Twenty-four teams competed in the Brain Games XVIII tournament at StoneGate Center May 14, 16 and 21, and the event was capped by the May 23 championship round.

The annual event is a fundraiser for the Lawrence County Historical and Genealogical Society Museum. Museum staff, board members and volunteers solicit sponsors who pay a fee to sponsor teams. Some sponsors provide their own players, and museum volunteers find additional players to fill out teams who need them.

Five-hundred dollars in prize money was divided between the final winning two teams, whose members also received individual medals. The winning sponsor will retain the traveling trophy for the next year.

LCHGS President Rowena Cross-Najafi orchestrated the event and Joe Timbrook served as master of ceremonies.

The yearly games are free, and open to the public.

BEDFORD — The Stone Cottage team, at right, bested the Virgil I. Grissom Inc.-Lawrence County Tourism team May 21, with a score of 140-30. The overall winner of the competition was the Cosner's Gun & Knife Shop team, beating the Rodney Fish and Family team, 160-120 May 23.
