Struggling for the American Dream

Jolin Crofts, Citizen by Choice

Victim of The Deep State

Jolin Crofts is a first-generation immigrant from Iran. She has a B.S. degree in Computer Science and a Master's degree in Telecommunications from the University of Pittsburgh. She moved to the U.S. in 1984, with her husband, after an arranged marriage with a prominent family from Dubai (U.A.E). Due to major religious and cultural conflicts with her husband she refused to move back to the Middle East. She converted out of the religion of Islam and became a citizen of the United States.

She has managed multimillion-dollar projects and was working hard, with appreciation for her liberty, and pursuing happiness for herself and her genius son. She was not aware that as punishment for exercising her basic human rights, her husband and her own family have been destroying every aspect of her life in the United States—with the help of the DEEP STATE.

Under religious and cultural persecution within the United States, and as a classic victim of the Deep State, she has done extensive research on this program and organizations involved in this operation. Jolin is breaking the silence and is sharing a unique story and the hidden truth of the dark shadows destroying her life and our freedoms in this county.
