

Everything you need to know before you register for the The Jungle Book

Camp Dates: August 4th through 8th – This is a one week performance Drama Camp

Cost: $160.00 per child, (ages 7 to 14 years) for the one week, (Monday through Friday), camp.

Structured time with the Directors: 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily. For an extra $5.00 a day you can drop your child off as early as 8:00 a.m. and pick up as late as 5:00 p.m. If you need both early drop off and late pick up it's $10.00 for the day.

Crafts: During the week the kids will do costume designs, set designs, make-up designs and all other crafts we do are geared specifically to the show your child is in. Everything the kids create – pertaining to the show - is put on a large poster that they will take home on the last day of camp.

We will only be accepting 25 registrations for this camp and the kids will perform their show on Friday, August 8th.

We provide two snacks a day. If your child cannot or will not eat the snacks you must provide a snack for them. You also need to provide a lunch.

Our summer camps are not 'drop in' camps. Your child must be committed to the full week since the other kids in the show are relying on them.

THE DRAMA CAMP IS CLOSED TO FAMILY AND VISITORS.

If you are a parent that needs to be with your child during their extra-curricular activities -- This camp is not for you. We want each child to have fun and it's stressful enough on the kids acting in front of me and my staff.

MY CHILD IS NEW TO THIS. WILL THEY GET A LEADING ROLE?

I'm afraid not. Theater is like every other extra-curricular activity: You have to learn to walk before you can run. After the show is cast on the first day the kids take their script home and memorize 7 to 12 pages of dialogue a night. The kids MUST come in memorized the next day. Putting this responsibility on the back of a new actor only results in the child dropping the camp and never trying again because it seems so daunting. Every child will get a line or a solo in every camp we do – the more experienced kids will get the larger roles.

Below are the show days and times for each pod.

Performance times and Date for JUNGLE BOOK - Friday, August 1st

11:00 a.m. / 1:00 p.m. and 3:00 p.m.

The family of each child in camp will be allotted 7 tickets to see their child's show. The cost is $3.50 per ticket. If you have 2 children in the same camp you get 14 tickets, etc. You don't have to use all 7 of your tickets for the same show, you can space them out over the three performances - but be aware...once a show is sold out - it's sold out. So when we announce that tickets are going on sale you need to act immediately to get the show you want. If you really don't have preferences which show you see, you can take a bit more time before you purchase.

Now then, if you have never had a child in one of our camps you are in for a treat. We don't treat their shows like a little 'skit'...Oh no! The kids perform on full sets with lighting sound costumes, props, etc. It's like a REAL show.

Registration for all camps begin on Monday, March 24th at 10:00 a.m. and registration ends at 5:00 p.m. daily. You can call our offices at (760) 728-1002 or you can register online at <https://www.broadwayvista.biz/drama-camps.html>
