

Walter J. Sternberg, 57, Bad Axe, died Tuesday morning in Bad Axe following a heart attack.

He had been ill for a period of time.

Mr. Sternberg was born January 19, 1917 in Bad Axe, where he was a lifelong resident.

He was an electrician and plumber and had worked for Slack's Hardware Store, Bad Axe, for 20 years.

He and Miss Beatrice Jarvis were married April 23, 1939 in the RLDS Church in Grant Township.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, James Sternberg, Plymouth, John Sternberg, Kalamazoo, and Wayne Sternberg, East Lansing; two sisters, Mrs. Orien Cowie, Warren, and Mrs. Peter Hebert, Bad Axe; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted 1 p.m. Friday.

The Rev. Ellis Gardner, Elkton, and Elder Jerry Cleland, Cass City, will officiate with burial in Colfax Cemetery, Bad Axe.

Remains are in the MacAlpine Funeral Home, Bad Axe.