La Vieille Ferme Rosé 2023

La Vieille Ferme, crafted by the renowned Famille Perrin, has gained global acclaim for offering exceptional quality at an affordable price. Since its creation in the 1970s, it's been recognized as one of the best value-for-money wines in the world. The 2023 Rosé vintage continues this tradition, showcasing the Perrin family's dedication to Rhône Valley winemaking, with a wine that's fresh, fruity, and perfectly balanced for everyday enjoyment.

General Information

- Producer: Famille Perrin
- Appellation: Ventoux, Rhône Valley, France
- Varietal Composition: Cinsault, Grenache, Syrah
- Vintage: 2023
- Alcohol Content: 12.5%

Vineyard and Terroir

- Location: Sourced from high-altitude vineyards in the Rhône Valley.
- Soil Type: Predominantly limestone and clay, contributing to freshness and minerality.
- Viticulture Practices: Sustainable farming to ensure optimal quality and environmental care.

Winemaking

- Harvest: Early morning harvest to preserve freshness and avoid oxidation.
- Vinification: The grapes undergo pneumatic pressing to extract the musts. Fermentation occurs in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks for about 15 days. The wine is then slightly fined before bottling.
