

Supporting the shelter

Randy Morris of Wedowee Marine (center) presents a check for $9,070 to Randolph County Animal Shelter Board president Chuck Smith and the shelter's director of operations Elisabeth Stanford.

Boat donation raises $9,000 for animal shelter

A man went into Wedowee Marine upset because he couldn't get his boat to run properly. He asked Wedowee Marine owner Randy Morris if he knew of any charities that would accept the boat. Morris suggested Randolph County Animal Shelter.

Morris then got in touch with the shelter and explained the situation. He said he would get the boat up and running and then sell it and give RCAS the proceeds. He sold the boat for $9,070.

Animal shelter personnel thank Randy Morris Wedowee Marine for thinking of the shelter and the many animals awaiting their forever homes. The shelter appreciates all donations that go towards caring for the animals housed there.
