

EMMA O. HAGEN

1899 - 1999

Emma O. Hagen, 99 of Caseville formerly of Flint and Flushing, passed away Monday, January 25, at the Huron County Medical Care Facility, Bad Axe.

She was born on Christmas Day, 1899, in Ann Arbor, to the late Emil and Emma Milcer, then moved to Flint in 1919 where she was employed by Bell Telephone Co, as an operator for 14 years. She married Stanley M. Hagen in Ann Arbor, September 24, 1922. He preceded her in death November 9, 1966.

Mrs. Hagen was very active in her church, Lakeview Methodist Church, sang in the choir, was a Red Cross volunteer, did home nursing as a Nurse's aide, served as secretary of the Fisher Body American Legion and attended St. Roch Church faithfully with her daughter. Emma was a talented seamstress and when she wasn't doing volunteer work, she could be found crocheting, quilting or making clothes for her grandchildren. She enjoyed the special times spent with grand and great grandchildren, and the many new friends she made since moving to Caseville.

Surviving are her daughter and son-in-law, Stannette and Frank Malosky of Caseville; her grandchildren, Lynnette (Ken) Boyer, Mark Day, Kathy (Larry) Fargo, Renee Staff, Suzanne (Robert) Elwell and Diane (John) Walker; Eleven great grandchildren, Adam, Alicia, Heather, Aaron, Mark, Frank, Christian, Chandra, Crystal, Tonya and Kurstin; two nieces and a nephew. Preceding her in death were a grandson, Lyle Day, two sisters and a brother.

A funeral mass will be conducted 11:00 AM Thursday, January 28, at St. Roch Catholic Church, Caseville. Rev. Fr. Dennis Kucharczyk, pastor will officiate with burial in Flint Memorial Park, Mt Morris.

Memorials may be given to; Extended Services at the Huron County Medical Care Facility, St. Roch or the donor's choice.
