

WISE Nominee Criteria

“Wise suggests great understanding of people, situations and unusual experiences; great learning and wisdom; has the ability to discern inner qualities and relationships.”

Miriam-Webster

Women In Service and Enterprise Nominees should demonstrate an equal combination of the following qualities:

- Enterprise: Success, professionalism, and devotion to her chosen avocation, whether as the owner of the business or a primary and/or devoted employee, showing an exceptional expertise in a certain area or overall success in the enterprise.
- Service: Many volunteer hours in a diverse mix of organizations, giving of themselves freely, “getting their hands dirty” and not just “serving in an organization without work.”
 - Or
- Lifetime Service: Many years of volunteer efforts in one or more organizations and a pronounced success showing from those hours, such as dollars raised or success with a certain venue or event in support of that organization.

Please remember to consider very carefully the above qualities, as the nomination of each person will be considered carefully and verified. Volunteer service over and above that which you do within your work hours or which encompass your job responsibilities is what a WISE woman signifies.

A WISE Nominee should be:

W.....Warm, Wise, Worker

I.....Innovative, Imaginative

S.....Sensitive, Sensational, Successful, Sympathetic, Sincere

E.....Esteemed, Endurance, Endearing, Educated about our community

A committee will select the annual award winner after nominations have been received from the community serviced by MSS. The winner will be announced at the annual luncheon.
