The Music Room is a series of monthly concerts held in the Ed Freeman Gallery on Chung King Road, a vibrant pedestrian walk street in historic Chinatown in downtown Los Angeles, organized by Poonam Sharma, Ali Jeevanjee and Paul Livingstone.

The Music Room, envisioned as a showcase of Los Angeles musical talent performance based in the South Asian classical tradition in an intimate setting occurs on the last Sunday evening of each month.

In the tradition of Indian Classical music and in the interest of creating a truly intimate experience, all concert seating will be eastern style floor seating.

Limited chair seating available, please reserve by email at musicroomchinatown@gmail.com or by calling 323-522-4214

Tickets: $15 available online at <http://www.inticketing.com/events/156270> or at the door.
