WEDOWEE--The attractive dogs eagerly wagged their tails, stood on their hind legs and seemed to be begging those touring the shelter Saturday to take them home.

Carl Nelson was looking for one in particular. He lives on old 431 and his dog was missing. He carefully looked at the dogs seeing if his was there. It wasn't. His wife is in rehab, he said, and when she gets out he will bring her and let her pick one out.

"She's crazy about her dogs," he said. The cat disappeared about the same time.

This event was to celebrate the
