From "Living Free in Christ" by Dr. Neil Anderson

The more you reaffirm who you are in Christ, the more your behavior will begin to reflect your true identity!"

Jesus said "Then you will know the truth and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32). We are set free not by how we behave, but by what we believe. Declare the truth that sets you free!

The Overcomers Covenant in Christ

- I place all my trust and confidence in the Lord, I put no confidence in the flesh, and I declare myself to be totally dependent upon God.
- I deliberately choose to submit to God and resist the devil by denying myself, picking up my cross daily and following Jesus.
- I choose to humble myself before the mighty hand of God in order that He may exalt me at the proper time.
- I declare the truth that I am dead to sin, freed from it, and alive to God in Christ Jesus, since I have died with Christ and have been raised with Him.
- I gladly embrace the truth that I am now a child of God who is unconditionally loved and accepted.
- I declare that sin shall no longer be master over me because I am not under the law, but under grace, and there is no more guilt or condemnation because I am spiritually alive in Christ Jesus.
- I renounce every unrighteous use of my body and I commit myself to no longer be conformed to this world, but rather to be transformed by the renewing of my mind, and I chooses to believe the truth and walk in it regardless of my feelings or circumstances.
- I commit myself to take every thought captive to the obedience of Christ; I choose to think upon that which is true, honorable, right, pure and lovely.
- I commit myself to God's great goal for my life which is to conform to His image.
- I choose to adopt that attitude of Christ, to do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit; with humility of mind I will regard others as more important than myself, not merely looking out for my own personal interest, but also for the interests of others.
