

Trapp Family Lodge Christmas

December 15 - 18, 2021

4 Days, 3 Nights

Wednesday ♦ Travel Day

After a day of traveling, we'll pull up to the von Trapp Family Lodge just outside the picture postcard village of Stowe, Vermont. Still operated by the von Trapp Family, their unique mountain resort, features Austrian-inspired architecture and European-style accommodations. We'll enjoy stunning mountain views, old world comforts and impeccable service. A three-course dinner is included this evening in the Main Dining Room at the lodge. Enjoy piano entertainment nightly in the lounge as well as movies in the lodge theater. (D)

Thursday ♦ Stowe, VT

This morning we'll awake to a country breakfast buffet included at the lodge. Our tour begins with an overview of the von Trapp family history (actual vs movie version) discussion of the property's history and the family's early years in America. We will view clips of the documentary film of Maria von Trapp's memories during her final visit to their former home in Salzburg. There will be time to browse their Austrian Gift Shop and have your souvenir signed by one of the family.

Spend your afternoon in the picturesque village of Stowe, leisurely browsing the shops and enjoying lunch on your own. The church in this charming village is the most photographed church steeple in New England. Later we'll tour Ben & Jerry's ice cream factory and enjoy a taste of the sample flavors as they come off the line!

Dinner this evening is a buffet at the von Trapp Family Bierhall overlooking the brewery where the family brews an array of craft beers. (B, D)

Friday ♦ Montpelier, VT

A day of touring with our local guide awaits us this morning after we indulge in the included country breakfast buffet at the lodge. Our first stop is the Morse Maple Sugar Farm where we will learn how maple syrup is made from the entertaining Mr. Morse himself in his Woodshed Theater. He'll direct us through the sugar house and the Vermont Farm Life Museum, as well as the country store.

Soon we'll depart for Montpelier to tour the state capitol, the smallest, and probably the prettiest, in the US. Lunch is on your own at the State Capitol Café.

We will stop at the Cabot Cheese Annex where we'll find a fantastic selection of their award-winning cheeses, as well as many other Vermont specialties. Next door is Lake Champlain Chocolates and the beautiful Danforth Pewter store. Nearby is the Smugglers' Notch Distillery and Tasting Room. Next we will visit Cold Hollow Cider Mill and gift shop as well as their Hard Cider tasting room.

Back at the lodge, we'll relax in this incredible setting before our three-course dinner in the Main Dining Room. (B, D)

Saturday ♦ Travel Home

After another sumptuous country breakfast buffet, we'll depart for home with some fond memories of our holiday at the Trapp Family Lodge. (B)
