She further stated that the change would save the city thousands of dollars in overtime fees being paid to employees working on designated holidays under the current holiday pay policy. Both Police Chief Preston and Fire Chief Fairbanks addressed the Council saying the current policy is overburdensome to the City and each indicated that they had worked with Ms. Adams to craft the new policy and were both in favor of the change. Mayor Forester also reminded the Council that approval of the personnel manual was behind schedule this year as it is usually discussed in January so the Council would have an opportunity to review the manual again in just a few short months.
