

The Value of a Memorial Brick

There are many ways to remember someone you loved: photographs can be displayed, stories can be told, and even distant memories can become fond remembrances.

Respectfully, we would like to suggest an additional way to remember your loved one and simultaneously support the Center's ability to assist other families in the future.

Placing a memorial brick creates a lasting tribute that signifies not only a memory, but a legacy of hope for others.

Your purchase of a memorial brick is an affirmation of the belief that hospice services need not be profit driven, and that community based, independent organizations can rely on donors and not shareholders.
