

Week 8
Due 3-14-19

PRACTICE EXERCISE
"M"

Directions: Circle the correct form of the word.

1. That restaurant is not open to (minors, miners).
2. Her boss tried not to (meddle, medal, metal, mettle) in her private life.
3. The tour included a trip through a grand (manor, manner).
4. The long, flowing (main, mane) required constant care.
5. With that answer from his supervisor, he moved a (might, mite) closer to a solution to the problem.
6. Having been torn by riots for several nights, the city was placed under (marshal, martial) law.
7. Their spirits sagged as they trudged across the (mores, moors).
8. As rations got low, the leader began to (meet, mete, meat) out each remaining morsel.
9. The time has come to (marshal, martial) all the resources available.
10. Insurance rates are based on (mortality, morality) tables.
11. The (missal, missile, missive) launch was delayed.
12. She likes the picture with the (mat, matte) finish.
13. He was (mustard, mustered) in last Friday.
14. They crept away from the scene of the homicide under a (mantle, mantel) of darkness.
15. After the accident in the chemistry lab, the surfaces of the counters were (mottled, modeled, muddled).
16. The issue they are discussing is really a (moot, mute) point.
17. The discovery that the harbor was (mind, mined) came too late.
18. The issue was (mottled, modeled, muddled) by the discovery of the new evidence in the case.
19. The children collected (muscles, mussels) and clams along the beach.
20. It is his intention to (mete, meet, meat) out the assignments on the basis of seniority within the company.

Week 8
Due 3-14-19

PROOFREADING EXERCISE

"M"

Directions: Make changes in the words where necessary. Some sentences are correct

1. The subpoena was served by the Marshall.
2. It was obvious that moral would be restored with the announcement of the terms of the settlement of the strike.
3. He slipped out of town under the mantel of darkness.
4. It was necessary to use a mall to complete the job.
5. I did not recognize her under that main which hung down and covered her entire face.
6. I resented the fact that, when the jobs had been meated out, I had more than my share.
7. It was difficult for her as she mustered her strength to make the trip.
8. In the morning mist it was impossible to see the old manner from the street.
9. The doctor discovered that the medal was embedded deep in the fleshy part of his leg.
10. I prefer the matte finish.
11. The clothing was found in a trash can, modeled with bloodstains.
12. Always having been blunt, she never was one to mince words.
13. The president sent the missile to every employee in the organization.
14. There was obviously a defect in the manufacturer when it was sent out to the customers.
15. The mien temperature for that region for the entire year was 75 degrees.
16. The cat had a chronic problem with ear mites.
17. It has been proved that the morality rate following this treatment has dropped significantly.
18. The only thing I would say about her that distinguishes her from the others is that she wears an incredible amount of mouse in her hair so that it stands up straight.
19. It appeared to me that the bed had been must since I had left.
20. At this point in the proceedings, I think the court will remain moot on the issue of fees.