

Ananda Festival is looking for traditional + integrative health practitioners that are dedicated to the education + well-being of others. Applicants may include, yet are not limited to: body work, acupuncture, naturopathy, homeopathy, reflexology, reiki or energy healing, sound healing, crystal therapy + herbal therapy.

The cost of your booth will be 10% of your festival income. Contributions will be paid to Ananda Festival no later than Sunday 8/18 at 2:00 pm. Participation includes two festival tickets.

Please submit your application to anandafestival@gmail.com

- Include a headshot, bio, + links to social media + website.
- List of services + pricing including duration of sessions.
- Name + title to appear on marketing materials.
- Will your modality create sound?

Gates for Healing Arts Practitioners open Thursday 8/15 at 4:00 pm + close Monday 8/18 at 10:00 am. The festival is open to the public Friday 2:00 pm - Sunday 2:00 pm. Programming begins Friday at 4:00 pm. Plan to set and schedule your work hours during the festival. For participation, a minimum of Saturday 9:00 am - 5:00 pm is required.

Accommodations are on-site open-field camping. The nearest hotels are in Petoskey, MI (20 mi). The nearest convenience store is in Wolverine (9 mi). Participants are responsible for bringing their own tent/booth set-up. Be prepared for any weather, rain or shine. Electrical plug-ins are not available unless requested prior to the festival.

For comments, questions, or concerns, contact Katie Marchbanks, Ananda Festival Healing Arts Coordinator, (989) 400-1520
anandafestival@gmail.com