- b. December Teacher Appreciation—SMILE Biscotti, just putting them in their box.
- c. January Family Night—Game night on January 29th, going to talk to student council on helping run game stations. Tables that are numbered, play a game and move on. Ask BearDen if they have games. Girl Scouts could do frog game. Active Games such as Pictionary, mad libs. Chess, checkers, trivia, price is right, chess club, rubix cube, guess that tune (the choir sings). This will be a free event, just for fun.
- d. Veteran's Day Celebration on December 12th
Mr. Seraichick gave us an overview of the Veterans celebration. Every year Liberty Wildlife brings an Eagle. PTSO will be purchasing $50 of supplies off their wish list and send out an email or flyer for any classrooms that would like to bring in donations as a thank you.
- e. Spring Fling Committee—need members! April 17th ½ day. Ideas that we threw around: Looking for new games, January start getting bids for rides and make decisions on food. Home Depot build it table. All food in cafeteria, games on the cement instead of the grass. Jumps in the grass. Cake walk cafeteria, Have an outline in January for classes to sign up to man things. Streamline this event. Change how we do baskets. List of basket themes, (Stephanie find out how if you enter in Google docs that it greys out the option for someone else to select). Each class in each grade, 7th Grade and 8th Grade basket. Save the auctioneer to Art Fair.
Spring Fling pricing: Different age age group bracelets. Wrist bands for large bounces, tickets for games.
