

Congress XII

July 6-9, 2017
Hyatt Regency Orlando Hotel

The National Black Catholic Congress (NBCC) is a non-profit organization of African-American Roman Catholics, founded in 1889 by Daniel Rudd as the Colored Catholic Congress, and revived in the 1980s under its current name. The mission of NBCC is to improve and enrich the lives of African-American Catholics. The NBCC operates in close cooperation and coordination with the African-American Bishops of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Five national congresses were held from 1889-1894. After a long hiatus, six additional national congresses have been held every five years since 1987. The twelfth national congress will be held in Orlando, Florida from July 6-9, 2017. The NBCC invites you to help support our mission of improving and enriching the lives of our Black Catholic brothers and sisters through an advertisement in the NBCC Congress XII program book.
