THERE'S A LOT TO LIKE

Stemmler is the oldest continuous producer of archery equipment in the United States. For more than sixty years, we have been making bows and arrows and all forms of archery tackle. We feel that our ability to endure has paralleled our meeting the challenge for quality of material and product demanded by our dealers and their customers.

Stemmler does not ask for or accept credit for all innovations that have been incorporated into modern archery. They are numerous. Some barely significant.

Some profound. We have been attentive to the sport we serve, providing important and necessary changes to meet the sportsman's demand.

QUALITY

Every effort is made to provide the finest material, design, workmanship, in short, to combine these in the finest possible product. All products are guaranteed and may be offered by the dealer with the knowledge that our responsibility ends only when the customer is entirely satisfied that his purchase is everything we say it is.

PACKAGING

Every effort is made to put together those packages and point of sale displays that save you time and effort, result in maximum sales. Properly utilized, your Stemmler products and packages should tell your customer most of what he needs to know, taking as little of your selling time as possible.

DELIVERY

Over the years Stemmler has achieved a reputation for proper back-up stock that insures the dealer ultimate return in sales. We guard this reputation very carefully. Orders are filled quickly. Delivery is made promptly and dependably.

Today's most advanced sales promotion ideas from America's oldest archery manufacturer. . .

STEMMLER

STEMMLER'S FINEST . . . THE PERSIAN

The all-powerful PERSIAN is the pride of the proficient bowman, commanding respect of the expert. It is a masterpiece of styling, balance and stability, perfect for target or the open range.

Design features reduce vibration, provide effortless draw and negligible recoil. The center-shot handle of exotic imported wood has a superbly formed pistol grip that incorporates a comfortably blended thumb rest. It is hand rubbed to a satin finish.

The PERSIAN has 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ " limbs of fiberglass laminated to inner strips of precision tapered selected maple, providing a remarkably smooth draw. There are laminations at the bow tips for extra reinforcements.
