

Jane Kloska, 87, of Bad Axe, passed away Wednesday, Aug. 27, 2014, at her home surrounded by her family.

She was born Dec. 28, 1926, in Meade Township, daughter of the late Alex and Ethel (Hall) Stirrett. She married Clarence Kloska Aug. 31, 1946, in Bad Axe. He preceded her in death March 31, 2004.

Jane was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe and loved going to the Huron County Senior Center in Bad Axe.

She is survived by three sons, Douglas (Marcia) Kloska of Lapeer, Craig (Rena) Kloska of Bay City and Todd Kloska of Bad Axe; three sisters, Vera Broomfield of Bad Axe, Gloria (John) Belew of Bad Axe and Floy (Eugene) Alent of Bad Axe; seven grandchildren, Jackie (Ronald) Yatteau of Knoxville, Tennessee, Philip Kloska of North Branch, Carrie Kloska of North Branch, Jeremy (Tara) Kloska of Bay City, Bradley Kloska of Bay City, Matthew (Christina) Perlick of Detroit and Alexander Kloska of Bad Axe; and five great-grandchildren, Katlin Yatteau of Knoxville, Tennessee, Kristin Yatteau of Knoxville, Tennessee, Jayden Kloska, Jaxx Kloska and Layla Kloska, all of Bay City.

She was predeceased by four brothers, Milford, Robert, Archie and Max Stirrett; and two sisters, Dorothy Nugent and Lois McDowell.

A memorial service will be at 11 a.m. Friday at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Interment will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Visitors may call from 10 a.m. until the time of service Friday at the Kaufman Funeral Home.

Memorials may be offered to Hometown Hospice.