When I was growing up, a phrase I would hear often was “Another day, another dollar” or “Another day, another .50 cents!” I was thinking about this today when I was thanking the Lord for giving me another day and just reflecting on the beauty around me while I was working. I was at the airport and I saw these planes fly over and had to take this picture.

Somehow I don't think the pilots of these planes got up and thought about the fact that it's another day to work hard and be robbed by “Big Brother” for ½ of what they earn. I think they got up and said “Today is the day, we are gonna fly!”

Proverbs 10:22 The blessing of the LORD makes one rich, And He adds no sorrow with it.

We can choose to have an optimistic or a pessimistic (glass ½ empty) mentality.

What I heard in my spirit today was we can choose to look at today and life as it's another day of making minimum-wage and struggling to survive or we can look at our day like it's another chance God has given us so what are we going to do with it?

I know I've written on this subject before about the words we speak but I'd like to remind us all again to start thinking and speaking:

- Another day, another chance.
- Another day, another way.
- Another day, another blessing.
- Another day, another breakthrough.
- Another day, another victory.
- Another day, another chance for God to move in GREAT WAYS.

Ephesians 1:3 - Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ,
