To Be or Not to Be...Spiritual

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Just as we may hear the voice of our mother echoing in our head long after she has passed away, in much the same way do we who gather week after week as people of faith begin to hear the words and wisdom of the Lord Jesus. It is how he shepherds us, and how we follow him—by hearing and then living his word.

There are some who say they are not religious, but they are spiritual. Ultimately, to be spiritual is to have a core set of values by which one lives. One's core values can take many shapes. For us, who call ourselves disciples of Jesus, to be spiritual is to take on the values and wisdom of Jesus—to allow his way to take root in the core of who we are. It means living by the wisdom of his word. Being spiritual includes honesty, gentleness, patience, joy, civility, simple living, mercy, compassion, peace, reverence and awe, obedience, justice, courage, balance in life, humility, chastity, kindness, generosity, lightheartedness, care for the common good, prayerfulness, and respect for all of creation as holy.

Spirituality is about absorbing the lifestyle of Jesus, about his word echoing in our lives, something that takes a lifetime. Religion, specifically our Catholic faith, is the practice of that spirituality in the company of others who are also trying to put those values into practice. Such practice, including weekly Mass and participation in the sacramental life of the Church, is necessary for the faithful followers of Jesus. ●

Reflect

*Which qualities of a spiritual person do I have?
What do I need to work on?*

[Jesus said,] "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me."
JOHN 10:27

Dear Padre,

When is it OK to medicate for pain? If my relative is in hospice, should I permit the use of drugs that hasten his or her death?

When someone we love is dying, we do not want him or her to be in pain. It is only natural to want to ease or end all suffering. The Catechism of the Catholic Church offers these guidelines: “The use of painkillers to alleviate the sufferings of the dying, even at the risk of shortening their days, can be morally in conformity with human dignity if death is not willed as either an end or a means, but only foreseen and tolerated as inevitable” (CCC 2279). In other words, it is permissible to medicate for pain, but you must not use narcotics as an end or means to hasten someone’s death—only to alleviate pain and minimize a person’s suffering. To give medication to cause death rather than merely to relieve pain is not allowed.

It is important to have a discussion about the types of treatment a person would want when they are dying. It is also important to have a discussion with your pastor or another priest or chaplain—someone who can help you discern whether the action, the intention, and the circumstances are consistent with Church teaching. Many times, one is forced to make very difficult decisions about medical care, and it is always good to have someone we trust who can help us make the best choice. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

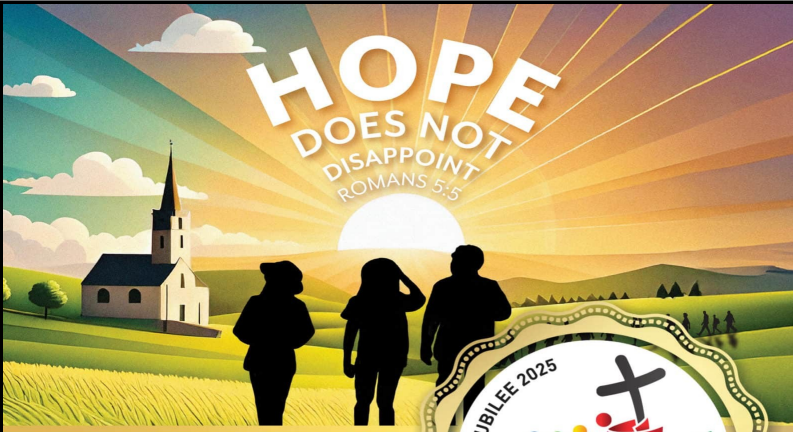

What do those who follow Christ do?... They go to seek those who are lost (cf. Lk 15:4), they take an interest in those who are far away, take to heart the situation of those who suffer, know how to weep with those who weep, they reach out their hands to their neighbors, carrying them on their shoulders.

Church Cleaning

Many hands make for light work, so the more the merrier and the quicker that our task can be completed! (men welcome!) Any questions, please contact Ruth Ann O'Keefe at 573-823-2676.

God Bless Our Mothers

Mother's Day is a special day in which we honor our mother!

From the day she held us in her arms we felt a unique bond with her. She holds us when we have scary dreams and reassures us everything will be alright. She encourages us to be what we can be while guiding us along life's rough road.

She might be considered to have more jobs than anyone else. She is a wife, counselor, housekeeper, chauffeur, chef, teacher, mediator, etc. She gives the whole family strength, love, reassurances, hope, caring and far more than mere words can convey. A mother gives her love unconditionally because her love is that remarkable!! But let us not forget the most beautiful and magnificent gift she gives to us: that is the gift of giving birth to our children.

God Bless our mothers, especially on Mother's Day!

May 9 - Field Day in PE
May 10 - 8th Grade Promotion @ 5pm Mass
May 16 - 8th Grade Last Day, 3rd-8th Field Trip to Columbia, PK-2 Fun Day
May 21 - Last Day Celebration at Wabash Park

Last Sunday, May 4, we joyfully welcomed four of our students as they received their First Holy Communion. These students had prayerfully prepared for this sacred moment, and we ask our parish community to keep them and their families in your prayers. May this beautiful sacrament deepen their love for Jesus and draw them ever closer to Him in the Eucharist.

Congratulations to our three 8th grade students, Bobby, Bri, and Tinley, on your promotion! We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments!

Our last day of school is on Wednesday, May 21. We will have an awards ceremony at 8:30am in the church. Then we will head down the street to Wabash Park. We will have lunch and dismiss at noon.

Virtue of the Month: Diligence

Diligence: doing your best and working hard until you're finished
We do our best when we remember that we are offering all our work to God. "Working hard" reminds us not to be afraid of a challenge, because we have strength that comes from Him. "Until you're finished" means having self-control to conquer our goal, even if we get tired of it.

Saint of the Week: St. Francis de Sales

St. Francis de Sales was a kind and gentle priest who lived from 1567 to 1622 in France. He worked very hard to teach people about God's love and never gave up, even when things were difficult. He wrote many helpful books and letters to explain the faith in simple ways. St. Francis was very diligent, always doing his best with patience and care, and he is the patron saint of writers and the deaf.
