

God is Our Caregiver, Revisited

Last month we shared the prayer topic, God is our caregiver. We invited your thoughts. A couple of folks replied, “Yes. God is our caregiver.” They had experience working with Christian Science nurses, and they were grateful. They had felt God’s love. One person put it this way – “God is the great caring giver.” Love that!!

One morning I found myself singing, “Thou art the same today, tomorrow; / Thy love and truth are everywhere.” Where did that come from? A short hunt led me to hymn 154.

Here it is in its entirety because it is chock full of the promise of God’s care

In Thee, O Spirit true and tender,
I find my life as God’s own child;
Within Thy light of glorious splendor
I lose the earth-clouds drear and wild.

Within Thy love is safe abiding
From every thought that giveth fear;
Within Thy truth a perfect chiding,
Should I forget that Thou art near.

In Thee I have no pain or sorrow,
No anxious thought, no load of care.
Thou art the same today, tomorrow;
Thy love and truth are everywhere.
(Christian Science Hymnal, No. 154:1–3)

Let’s continue our focus on the constancy of God’s care, the ever-presence of her love. And again, we would love to hear any inspiration that has come to you. Reach us with your thoughts at mail@desertview.us.
