

For it is from Zion that the Messiah must come into His Kingdom and reign (Is. 59:20).

“Prepare yourselves for what is about to come. The murderous scheme of the Coalition will succeed; that is inevitable. Their conspiracy is already known to the Father, and so it was prophesied (Is. 53:3-5). God will use this villainy to fulfill His own glorious plan for mankind’s Redemption through His Lamb.

7. “Notwithstanding the horrible event about to take place, believe Me when I add, with the utmost sincerity and truth, that although you cannot comprehend this now, My leaving you will rebound to your greatest benefit. Brothers, this is the end of remaining as we were, wandering preachers, announcing the arrival of the Messiah and His Kingdom. Now do we begin a new and more glorious phase: the Establishment of the Messianic Kingdom of God and the Presentation of the Conquering Messiah to the world.

“Our traveling together to announce the Presence of the Messiah and preach God’s Message throughout the Promised Land is over. The time allotted for the Nation to give Me their allegiance and accept Me as the Messiah will soon pass. Now must the Messiah come into His glory and activate Yahweh’s Universal Deliverance! To consummate that great promise requires the Messiah’s personal witness of redemptive love. It is this that the Lamb of God will accomplish alone, this very day.

“So do not despair, for today, Total Good and Ultimate Evil will collide in mortal battle, and all mankind will be the beneficiary of My victory. I will die tragically but not without purpose. My sacrifice will only emphasize My Love and that Model of Total Giving can never be lost. Momentarily, every one of you will be grief-stricken, but in the end your grief will turn to joy. What happens today will mark a new beginning for the sons of Adam: the Truth and the Life will become the Way, for through Me, a permanent direct connection between the world of men and God will be made, and the personal relationship I have with Him, as a Loving and Merciful Father, will be shared with you (Mt.11:27). The Messiah will return mankind’s prodigals to Fatherly welcome home (Mt.5:10-12).
