

Zerahemnah appointed chief captains over the Lamanites, & they were all his ite & the Lamanites, now this he did, that he might preserve their hatred towards the Nephites, that he might bring them into subjection, to the accomplishment of his designs, for hehold his designs were to stir up the Lamanites to anger against the Nephites, ite, this he did that he might ^{usurp} great power over them, also that he might gain power over the Nephites, by bringing them into bondage & to now the design of the Nephites was as to support their lands, & their houses, & their wives & their children, that they might preserve them from the hands of their enemies, & also that they might preserve their rights & their privileges, yea, also their liberty, that they might worship God according to their desire, for they knew that if they should fall into the hands of the Lamanites, that whosoever should worship as in spirit & in truth the true & the living God, the Lamanites would destroy ye & they also know the intent we had of the Lamanites towards their brethren, was to kill the people of British Liberty, which were called the people of Ammon, & they would not take upon ye, that they
