

Ivone Juell, MA, MA, RPC, MPCC-S

Executive Director & Clinical Supervisor

Registered Professional Counsellor (RPC)
Master Practitioner in Clinical Counselling Supervisor
(MPCC-S)

I am the Clinical Supervisor for the Door of Hope Counselling Clinic. I have a Master of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy and a Master of Arts in Christian Counselling. I am a member of the Canadian Professional Counselling Association (CPCA), in which I have the following credentials:

1. Registered Professional Counsellor (RPC).
2. Master Practitioner in Clinical Counselling Supervisor (MPCC-S).

I supervise Diploma and Master's Level Counsellors in their internship process to obtain their credentials and licensing with their prospective counselling associations. I am also a counsellor educator. I teach various counselling courses at Pacific Life Bible College (PLBC), Surrey BC., where I am the Director, Counselling Programs.

In my professional practice, I employ a variety of techniques from various counselling models and therapies, such as, but not limited to:

1. Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT);
2. Solution-Focused Therapy;
3. Marriage and Family Therapy;
4. Gestalt Therapy;
5. Group Therapy;
6. Psychoanalytical Therapy.

For over 18 years, I have employed a variety of techniques from various counselling models and therapies. I have assisted individuals, couples, families and groups of clients from diverse cultural, social economic and religious background to address and work on the following issues, which include, but not limited to:

- Anxiety
- PTSD
- Depression
- OCD
- DID
- Anger management
- Sexual abuse
- Sexual addiction

- Substance abuse and addictive thinking and behaviours
- Eating disorders
- Chronic grief and bereavement
- Personality disorders
- Overcome and achieve inner healing from past traumas and experiences
- Identify and work through personal, relational, premarital, and marital and family conflicts.

As part of my professional development, I have been trained in various areas of counselling psychology and family therapy where I have obtained various specializations and certifications that allows me to work effectively with clients struggling in the areas mentioned above. The following are, but not limited to, some of the specializations and certifications that I have and or I am in the process of obtaining:

1. Certified Sexual Addiction Specialist by Freedom Begins Here (In Progress).
2. Certified Addictions Counsellor by Genesis Process (In Progress).
3. Certified Advanced Anger Management Counsellor and Trainer by CounselCare Connection P.C., The What's Good About Anger Institute for Anger Management (In Progress).
4. Tension & Trauma Releasing Exercises (TRE) (In progress)
5. Certified Trauma Incident Reduction (TIR) Counsellor by Applied Metapsychology International.
6. Certified Gestalt Therapy Model Level 1 Counsellor.
7. Certified Gottman Method Couples Therapy Level 1 Counsellor.
8. Certified Parent Educator by The Boys Town Common Sense Parenting Program.
9. Certified Family Educator by The Journey of Hope, Tulsa Alliance for The Mentally Ill.
10. Certified Premarital Counsellor by Enrich Canada.
11. Certified Leveling Prayer Counsellor.

In my personal and professional career and practice, I have always had a strong commitment to social justice and have demonstrated a respect for individual differences, including those related to age, gender, race, ethnicity, culture, religion, disability, and social economic status. I am a woman of integrity whose personal life and work is congruent with my values.