

The Tanner Paddlewheeler with captain Ricky Daniel was one of the most unique entries and persevered after a shaky start. The entry one the Davy Jones Locker Award - they didn't get anything but wet.

Central Middle School of Carroll County won the demolition derby, being the last boat floating with the entire crew inside.

Gregg Dendinger of Randolph County Sheriff's Department proved to be a colorful emcee.

Barry Morris of Lake Wedowee Property Owners Association looks as if he knows his time in dry clothes may be limited.

Braden Laney and Emma and Abby Huddleston steer the entry for the Wedowee Elementary & Middle School Lunchroom Ladies.

The Full Monty Award for best costume and theme went to the "Pawrates."

Winners of the Mr. Toad's Wild Ride Award - How Did We Ever Make It - were the Wadley High School Lunchroom Ladies.

Students from Randolph County and Woodland high schools participated with their boats.