

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

NELDA GOLDEN

- Vice President of programs and Founding member of Southwest Jewish Congress
- Past President and Founder of the Association of Women Executives which supports needs in the community

- Founded Couples Club at Temple Emanu-El. for social interaction; active leadership in Congregation Adath Yeshurun North Miami Beach, Florida

KENNETH R. GLASER

- Co-founder, Temple Shalom, and North Texas BLEWS; Board Member, Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum

- Community leader at, AZA, Alpha Epsilon Pi, Congregation Shearith Israel Brotherhood, and Hurricane Katrina resettlement efforts
- Supporter/ leader, AIPAC, the Israel Now Forum, and SWJC, all dedicated to the support of the State of Israel and the Israel/US relationship

CARING COUPLE

FONDA AND JAY ARBETTER

FONDA: Leader, serving in multiple capacities at Congregation Shearith Israel; Volunteer and patron for many public and private arts-related organizations; Editor, program planner and hostess for several community non-profit organizations

JAY: Board member, many faith-related schools, agencies and places of worship; Presenter, professional workshops for nonprofit organizations; Author, “The Power of Networking Strategy”

AUDREY KAPLAN INSPIRING WOMEN OF THE SOUTHEAST AWARD RECIPIENTS

BRITTANY BARNETT

- Founder, Girls Embracing Mothers (GEM), to strengthen bonds between incarcerated and girls
- Founder, Buried

Alive, to eliminate “life without parole” sentencing for non-violent drug offenses

- Advocate for incarcerated mothers/children via The Texas Dept. of Criminal Justice

KIM CUMMINGS

- SVP HR, Talent and Workforce Planning at Children’s Health, Dallas
- Vice Chair, Girls Inc. of Tarrant County Advisory Board; Advisor, The Source of Hope; Personnel committee chair, Child Care Associates

- Member, Grapevine/Colleyville ISD Diversity Council; Multicultural Alliance Board; National Association of Asian American Professionals; Orchid Giving Circle-Dallas Women’s Foundation

NELLY CUENCA

- Founder, MaaPaa Foundation, to support life skills training for single mothers and their male children
- Specialist, community relations, to advance marketing skills for hospitals and supports for family caregivers

- Author, with son, of the children’s book, “I Smell Like a Flower” to activate the imagination of boys and girls

ASHLEE HUNT KLEINERT

- Co-founder, Executives in Action (now, New York-based Catchafire, Inc.), which places corporate leaders in nonprofit organizations

- Owner, Ruthie’s Food Trucks, including Ruthie’s Snacks of Kindness, which delivers food to nonprofits and others in need
- Volunteer, New Friends New Life, which helps youth who have been trafficked to escape and build a positive, healthful life

REBECCA MCGARRY

- Advocate, judge-appointed volunteer at CASA, which assists youth in need of safe haven from troubled family situations
- Developer, the Legal Liaison program, which she instituted to facilitate court processes in placing youth with few resources

- Community volunteer, to follow up with youngsters after their cases have been completed, to assure positive placement

ROSLYN DAWSON THOMPSON

- Advocate for women’s philanthropy and business development in many major civic and nonprofit organizations
- Advisor on issues of gender investments and economic self-sufficiency, and “crusader for women’s rights”

- Leader/officer, at the Texas Women’s Foundation, which develops initiatives to impact women’s economic security/leadership

STAN GOLDEN MEN OF ACTION AWARD RECIPIENTS

HANK ALTERMAN

- Founder, The Scholarship Fund, to provide financial assistance for needy students to advance their education
- Lawyer, in private practice, concentrating in estate, tax and financial planning for individuals and corporations

- Volunteer, in several community service projects in the area of legal representation for guardianships

DALE HANSEN

- Founder, The Hansen Foundation, to scholarship students to UNT (proceeds from the Dale Hansen Golf Classic)
- Acclaimed sportscaster, known for honest, candid reporting on complex sports-related and societal issues

- Advocate for education, promoting “student athletes” and achievements of both outstanding male and female youths

LOUIS HARRELL, JR.

- Co-founder, The Men of Nehemiah (MON Mission) in South Dallas, to assist those fighting drug and alcohol addiction
- Social service worker, providing a weekly clothing and feeding ministry for homeless and/or addicted men

- Volunteer at the Community Technology Center, and Weed and Seed, job training and after school tutorial for at-risk youth

HARBANS LAL, Ph.D.

- Retired Professor and Chairman, University of North Texas Pharmacology and Neuroscience Center & Health Science Center, Ft. Worth
- Sikh scholar,

Religious Studies, Guru Nanak Dev University; active in many multi-faith groups, including Thanks-Giving Square, Dallas

- Publisher, over 400 research papers, 20 books, specialist in behavioral medicine, substance abuse and a prolonged healthy life span

RICHARD MILES

- Wrongfully incarcerated at age 19 for murder and aggravated assault; sentenced to 60 years in prison. Centurion, an innocence organization in Princeton, NJ, accepted the case. Released in October 2007 and fully exonerated.

- Founder, “Miles of Freedom” a nonprofit that provides holistic support for individuals, families and communities impacted by incarceration
- Advocate for falsely accused; the Richard Miles Act was passed in 2021 in Texas, to address timely disclosure of evidence by law enforcement

SENIOR CORPORAL F. MONTY MONCIBAIS

- Senior Corporal, with over 50 years at the Dallas Police Department, one of first Hispanics, with over 100 commendations

- Founder, “Stage Right” that engages high-risk teens in constructive action via the arts, via DISD and Girls and Boys Clubs
- Spokesperson, member of community groups such as Special Olympics, and Red Ribbon campaign for drug prevention and child safety

FUTURE INSPIRING WOMAN

NOA KSABI

Johns Hopkins University
Major: Neuroscience

- Founder, Jewish Medical Action and Awareness Club (JMAAC), to encourage medical education
- Author, “Lungs of Gold”, re Cystic

Fibrosis, and other children’s books re health during Covid pandemic

- Leader, student activities at Akiba Yavneh Academy; externally, organized trips to patient simulator clinical trials

FUTURE MEN OF ACTION

SPENCER JACKSON BURKE

University of Texas
Major: Electrical Engineering

- Leader, community projects on conservation/ combatting invasive species at Connemara Meadow Nature Preserve at

Northaven Trail

- Eagle Scout, Chaplain of Troop 577, 23 Palms Award, 138 Merit Badges, STEM Award, Congressional Award Gold Medal
- Academic scholar, St. Mark’s School of Texas; president, Chess for Humanity Chess Club; Triumvirate Classics Club

STEVEN MENDELSON

Texas A&M School of Engineering
Major: Mechanical Engineering

- Leader, president, community liaison, regional officer, etc. for youth service organizations, including BBYO, NCSY and the JCC, Dallas
- School organizer, started the JJ Pearce

Jewish Student Union and conducted planning meetings for seasonal celebrations

- Eagle Scout, assisted with Jewish Family Service Food Pantry, delivered High Holiday and Passover packages to home-bound families