

JESSICA DISALVO

Instructor

Jessica has been dancing since the age of two. She was raised in the dance studio by her mother, Miss Tara Lynn. She was a nationally competitive dancer for 10 years, and achieved several titles including: “Dancer of The Year”, “Miss Sophisticated”, and “Top Dancer”, as well as two First Place National Titles at the Hall of Fame National Competition 2012. She has also won several Technique Excellence Awards and many more...

Jessica studied dance with dozens of amazing choreographers and teachers throughout the years from California to Florida such as Roy Fitzel, Sylvia Rico, Dennis Caspary, Joe Tremaine, Roland Gruspe Jr., and Mark Chavarria; the list is endless.

Jessica’s choreography has won several top awards and received choreography awards from several competitions. She has experience teaching dance to dancers of all ages and levels, in a variety of styles.

We are excited to welcome Miss Jessica to Aspire Dance Studio!
