

PEOPLE OF INTEREST

Farrah Fawcett Foundation Hosted Its First Annual “TEX-MEX FIESTA” Benefitting Stand Up To Cancer at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts in Beverly Hills honoring Jaclyn Smith, Lipstick Angels and innovative cancer immunotherapy company Advaxis, Inc. Lyle Lovett performed and Access Hollywood host Billy Bush Emceed. Wallis Annenberg and Dr. Lawrence Piro chaired the inaugural event celebrating the life and legacy of the iconic Farrah Fawcett and her unwavering commitment to fund research for a cure for the cancer that took her life in 2009.

- 1) Alana Stewart, President & CEO of the Farrah Fawcett Foundation presents the “Shining Star Angel Award” to Jaclyn Smith
 - 2) Jaclyn Smith, Daniel O’Connor, Renata Helfman and Alana Stewart
 - 3) Lyle Lovett performing on stage
 - 4) Ryan O’Neal
 - 5) Emcee Billy Bush “Access Hollywood”
 - 6) Advisory Board Member and Farrah Fawcett’s cousin Greg Walls and his wife Nikki
 - 7) Cancer survivor Toni Staton Harris (R) presents the Community Leadership Angel Award to Renata Helfman (L) Founder, Lipstick Angels
 - 8) Kimberly Stewart, Ashley Hamilton, Alana Stewart and George Hamilton
 - 9) Advisory Board Members Marianne Williamson and Tim Quinn
 - 10) Nigel Lythgoe
 - 11) Dr. Lawrence Piro (R) presents the Medical Visionary Award to Daniel O’Connor (L), President/CEO, Advaxis, Inc.
- Photos: Vince Bucci

