

El Santuario de los Pobladores — Dedicated to the Mysteries of the Rosary

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. Some memorial plaque panels have been placed at the Santuario entrance temporarily and will be relocated to the courtyard. Your continued patience & cooperation is greatly appreciated as we work with volunteers in this phase of our project. St. Augustine & Holy Family statues are now in place at the Santuario. The process for remaining (5) mission statues will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We encourage our volunteers to actively seek contributions for Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio. In addition, statues of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego will be placed at the entrance & walkways leading visitors to various areas of interest.

Placement of new trees will also be available to contributors interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos. We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along - monetary contributions, volunteer time and efforts of Brian Knight & Al Abeyta Jr. for their craftsmanship & display of memorial plaques, Mike Spearman, Albert Vialpando & other volunteers. Your continued support and prayers are greatly appreciated. Tours are available. Please call the church in advance, if possible. Thank You!

MASS THEME

Theme: Death and Life

Great people were often controversial figures during their lifetime. It is history, which can look on from a distance and see things in proper perspective, that rectifies the often limited judgment of contemporaries. Something like this has happened to the Lord Jesus. His contemporaries, even his closest coworkers, did not understand him, especially not his strange ideas on suffering and death as a necessary passage to a better life. Only later did all of this become clear to them. Today Christians celebrate Palm Sunday. "For it was to accomplish this mystery [of Christ's Passion and Resurrection] that he entered his own city of Jerusalem" (Procession Rite). The triumphal entry, celebrated at the beginning of the passion-week, emphasizes that the three elements: suffering, death, and resurrection, belong together. Jesus' death was not a defeat. It was a victory. It is the genuine insight of Christianity that the events of Jesus' earthly life were meant to enable the execution of God's saving purpose. This genuine insight should be ours also concerning our own lives when suffering strikes us. How do you deal with suffering in your life and when you encounter fellow humans who die in suffering and distress? Paul states: "If we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep" (1 Thes 4:14). "O Lord,... through the death of your Son you have brought us to hope for what we believe, so by his Resurrection... lead us to where you call" (Prayer after Communion).

BIBLICAL COMMENTARY

FIRST READING Is 50:4-7
[Christ's Suffering]

This reading is taken from the third song of the Servant of Yahweh. As mentioned at the feast of the Baptism of the Lord-A (p. 189), it is not clear whom the inspired writer had in mind when he composed these four songs describing the ideal Servant (Son) of God. Is he a collective person: Israel, God's people? Is he a king of the past or the Messiah (anointed king) to come? In any case the Christian community applied these hymns very early to Jesus and they are used throughout Holy Week as a beautiful commentary on the passion narratives. Indeed, "the Son of Man [Jesus] did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mt 20:28). Read the Responsorial Psalm meditatively, applying it to the Lord Jesus dying on the cross.

SECOND READING Phil 2:6-11
[Humility]

This text is actually a Christ hymn, sung in church. It beautifully describes our Lord's utmost humiliation that he suffered on the cross. By being obedient, he made up for our sinful disobedience. But this hymn sings also of Christ's exaltation by the Father. Meditating on the Lord's suffering and death, as Christians do during Holy Week, we should keep both sides of the Christ event in mind. It is suffering and death that actually constitutes a passage to exaltation. Good Friday and Easter belong together even in our lives!

Question of the Week

Who can I forgive with the Lord’s mercy this week?

We would like to welcome the newest members of our Catholic faith:

Alrek

“Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” -Matthew 28: 19-20

We would also like to thank Dolores Mondragon and Gloria Medina for volunteering two weeks of their time to cover the Parish Office while everyone was out sick. They revamped the gift shop and so much more! Thank you ladies! God Bless YOU!

We want to extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you who give your time, energy and love to serve our church community. Whether you’re greeting at the doors, teaching our children, preparing our meal, or lending a hand behind the scenes, your efforts do not go unnoticed.

Your willingness to serve reflects the love of Christ and helps make our church a place of warmth, connection, and spiritual growth. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus—you are truly a blessing to us all.
