

Legion 40 and 8 Installs

FUN GROUP INSTALLS—Martin Fendel, left, new chef de gare of Richmond Voiture, 40 and 8, American Legion, receives gavel of office from installing officer, Sid Pasternack, state grand chef de gare, at dinner-dance in Cichon Legion Post hall, Elm Park. Others are James Harkins, second from left, outgoing chef, and Stanley Deering, installation chairman.

Martin A. Fendel, chef de gare of Richmond Voiture, 40 and 8, American Legion, and his staff were installed at a dinner-dance Saturday night in Cichon Legion Post headquarters, Elm Park, by Sid Pasternack, state grand chef, and Hugh McLaughlin, District 2 trustee.

Pasternack expressed confidence that the voiture will continue its work in child welfare, nurses' training financing and community service. He called attention to the challenge of maintaining and increasing Legion and 40 and 8 membership. Present were delegations from voitures in New York County, the Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens as well as from Hudson and Bergen Counties in New Jersey. Others attending were members of other Island Legion posts and a delegation from the county organization, headed by Thomas J. Kiernan, county commander.

The guests were introduced by Stanley Deering, master of ceremonies and chairman of the affair. James F. Harkins was installation chairman.

AUTO INSURANCE

CRITICAL Days Are the Largest