

BEN SCHULTZ

1938 - 1981

Ben Schultz, age 42 of Bad Axe, died Wednesday, July 8 at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak, after an extended illness.

He was born Nov. 14, 1938 in Graydenzz, Germany, son of Mrs. Hilda (Maschmann) Schultz of Bad Axe and the late Otto Maschmann. He came to the United States in 1949 and settled in Port Hope. He and Barb Pasieczny were united in marriage Oct. 2, 1965 in St. John's Lutheran Church, Port Hope.

He was employed at the Bad Axe Block and Ready Mix Co. for 20 years. Schultz was a member of Our Saviour Lutheran Church and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

He is survived by his wife, Barb; two sons, Ben and Rick both at home; his mother; one sister, Reuben (Rita) Arntz of Harbor Beach, several nieces and nephews.

One sister, Astrid, preceded him in death in 1970.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, July 11 at Our Saviour Lutheran Church. Rev. John E. Beck, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Kinde officiated with burial in Colfax Cemetery, near Bad Axe.

Arrangements were handled by MacAlpine Funeral Home