

HIS WAY

Someone posted this picture and I laughed with sarcasm thinking -now there's an understatement! When suddenly the truth of it washed over me and I stopped laughing.

A picture is worth a thousand words, right? And well, this one sure speaks LOUD and CLEAR. There is no question about it. We are all on life's journey and there is no way to avoid it. However, we can live our life one of two ways, God's way or our own.

When I woke up this morning I wanted to sleep in a little longer. Yesterday was a rough day emotionally for me, but this picture flashed through my mind. Something told me that sleeping in longer was my way. So I got up thinking how today could be God's way or my way.

BTW:I felt pretty confident that I picked God's way by getting up when I did (grin).

Man's nature is to seize control and do it our own way. Remember that song, "I Did It My Way?" Yet, realistically speaking, how well does this work us? Want my two cents? I'd say, NOT MUCH!

I am going to be direct okay? (Tee Hee...like I'd be any other way....) There's no doubt that we want things to take place on our time table and done our way. After all, we want them when we want them. Unfortunately, when those things don't occur the way we want, we tend to make other decisions that only hurt us. We all know they can lead us towards bitterness, stress, ungodly things or even poor choices that bring a moment of self gratification.

If God's way is not at the forefront of our decision making, and we haven't chosen His will to be done (Matthew 6:10), then those decision areas will become burdensome, troublesome and misleading.

When we pick God's way we will see it lead us to Kingdom purposes established in our life. Honestly, I did not plan on posting this. However, if I ignore what the Lord is directing me to write, whose way I am going?

Next time you need to make a decision no matter how big or small, I pray this image flashes before your eyes.

I really love how this picture is now so in my face. For some reason the Lord keeps speaking about decisions. Guess a few folks have some decisions to make and He is wanting those decisions to be made His way.

I can guarantee this, your next decision is either going to be God's way or your way. And if it's your way, there is no exit....

We must pray and earnestly seek God's way and what He has planned for us. Our ultimate goal should always be to please Him in every way.

Heavenly Father,

I thank you that You are always faithful and I am so thankful for Your presence in my life. I ask you to guard my heart and mind, cloak me in Your peace. I ask you to direct my steps. Clear the way today for me to carry out Your plans with no interference from the enemy. Help me make the right decisions. By faith today, I grab hold of your truth for my life. I commit my actions, my words, and thoughts to You. I want You to know that I completely surrender all I am to You. I declare that Your kingdom come and Your will be done in my life today. Help me, to seek to You, to honor You with every word, my every action, and every decision that I make. May my actions and words express Your love for mankind in all I do. In Jesus' Name.
