Financial report was given by City Clerk (see attached), no changes need to be made, and Commissioner Chris Sandlin, made the motion to accept as stand, 2nd by Commissioner Juanita Pettit, all in favor, motion carried.

Commissioner Reports

City Commissioner Jerry Shelton stated we still have not received any update on the 911 service fee.

Water/Wastewater Commissioner, Keith Saylor reported water loss is 41%. We have repaired 2 large leaks and this should help to alleviate the water loss on next months. Water Superintendent stated the Division of Water performed a TTHM 5 testing to test water chlorine.

Streets and Roads Commissioner, Juanita Pettit reported she has received a request from resident on Stanford street wanting a new tile, there is a pot hole reported on Garden Lane that needs repaired. Update on sidewalk project still waiting on state to resolve the possible drainage issue on Elm Street.

Emergency Services Commissioner, Chris Sandlin reported Police Chief Jimmy Gipson's monthly activities, (see attached report).

New Business:

Ashley Powell, Lincoln EMS Coordinator addressed the EMS issues the city seems to be experiencing since the merger. He presented information regarding all the calls the former East End service is now taking and it seems as they have for the most part become a transport station as 45% of their runs are transport. He stated they sleeping quarters are also an issue they are attempting to work on in order to be able to staff 24/7. He stated there have been some issues they have worked out and it still is in a work in process and changes will be made soon.

Commissioner Jerry Shelton stated there needs to be 2 candidates submitted to the EMS Ambulance Board as representative to serve on the Lincoln EMS to represent Crab Orchard and to this day no names have been submitted.

2nd reading Ordinance #18-05-03 FY 2018-2019 Budget, Commissioner Keith Saylor made the motion to accept the 2nd reading on the Budget ordinance, 2nd by Commissioner Chris Sandlin, vote as follows,
