

Campbell, Duncan

Duncan Campbell, 94, of Bad Axe died Tuesday evening, April 18, 2000, at Huron Memorial Hospital in Bad Axe. He was born Jan. 24, 1906, in Meade Township to the late Archie and Jane (McVictor) Campbell. On May 26, 1938, Duncan was married to Verna L. Willett. She preceded him in death in 1990. He and Rose (Koss) Lemanski were married on Aug. 1, 1992. Duncan worked at the Huron County Road Commission until his retirement. He also worked at the Bad Axe Theater and was a master sign painter. His signs hang in the Huron County Expo Building, the Grindstone Sportsman's Club and all over Huron County. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Bad Axe, Life Mason member of Verona Huron Lodge No. 365 for 50 years, the Bad Axe Lions Club and the Good Sams Club. Duncan enjoyed painting, taking pictures and videos, traveling throughout the country, reading books and creating videos from old photographs. Duncan is survived by his wife, Rose; one daughter, Lorraine Louise Dayringer and her husband, Garald Lee, of Midland; one grandson, Aron Charles Dayringer of Midland; one stepson, Robert Lemanski and his wife, Marie, of Bad Axe; one stepdaughter, MaDonna Howell and her husband, Owen, of Iron Mountain; five step-grandchildren, Gabriel Lemanski of Harbor Beach, Demetrius Lemanski of Lansing, Blanda Hattic and her husband, Chad, of Denver, Colo., Joan Nystram and her husband, Steve, of Virginia, and Robert Sytek of Ohio; one step-great-grandchild, Peter Mystram of Virginia; one brother-in-law, Cliff Willett and his wife, Ruth, of Bad Axe; one sister-in-law, Lawaine Willett of Okemos; and several nieces and nephews. Duncan was preceded in death by one son, Donald; and two brothers, Peter and Donald Campbell. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday, April 22, 2000, at the First United Methodist Church of Bad Axe with the Rev. William Wright officiating. Burial will take place at the Verona Cemetery. A Masons service will be conducted at 7 p.m. Friday at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Visitation will be 2 to 9 p.m. Friday at the funeral home and from 10 a.m. until the time of services at 11 a.m. Saturday at the church. Memorials may be made to the family.