

"Sofia's Dream is a wonderful "must read" for all children. Our hope is that they carry into adulthood the message so artfully presented in its pages and take seriously the challenge we have of sustaining our Earth for future generations."

~Astronaut Edgar Mitchell, ScD, PhD, Apollo 14
(sixth person to walk on the moon); founder of the Institute of Noetic Sciences

"The moon, from his very special view of Earth from space, is able to inspire young Sofia to protect her planet. And I, reading Sofia's Dream to my granddaughter, hope to similarly inspire her."

~Denis Hayes, President & CEO, Bullitt Foundation; coordinator of the first Earth Day; founder of Earth Day Network

"This beautifully illustrated story . . . simply tells everyone, young and old, how to become a responsible environmentalist."

~Lynn Riccabona, librarian, John Muir Elementary, Antioch, CA

"Sofia's Dream should be everyone's reality—understanding the beauty and fragility of our home planet is a key part of getting to work protecting it!"

~Bill McKibben, bestselling author, educator, & activist; co-founder of 350.org
