KELOWNA KIWANIS FESTIVAL

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

As President of the Board of Directors, I take great pride in welcoming all performers, adjudicators, teachers, parents, volunteers, sponsors and donors to our 2019 Festival. This will be our 93rd continuous year of operation where we have watched many thousands "Perform, Learn and Grow".

With the skilled direction of our Executive Director, Karen Machura, and the hard work of our volunteer Board of Directors we look forward to the excitement of the upcoming season. Once again we have an esteemed lineup of notable adjudicators ready to offer our participants valuable assessments of their performances. We are always amazed at the fantastic talent that this community festival attracts.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all the wonderful sponsors, donors, volunteers and community collaborators who work with us to make this Festival happen. Without their generous support it would not be possible.

To the performers I say welcome, do your best, learn all you can from our valued adjudicators, and most importantly, have fun with this great opportunity. We know many of you have the talent and dedication to move onward to Provincial and even National levels. Good luck to each and every one of you.

Warm regards,

March 2019

Welcome to the 2019 Kelowna Kiwanis Festival

I am pleased to welcome all the participants from across Canada to the annual Kelowna Kiwanis Festival running during March and April, culminating with a gala concert on May 31st. This festival is in its 93rd year and is a major performing arts event in our region. The positive results and legacies of the Kelowna Kiwanis Festival help to stimulate growth and development of the arts and contribute to our region's cultural experience.

The Kelowna Kiwanis Festival unites us as a community whether we are participants, supporting parents or friends, adjudicators, sponsors or audience members. It provides opportunities for amateur performers in music and dance to demonstrate their achievements and be evaluated in a constructive and positive manner by esteemed professionals from across Canada. The gala concert on May 31st provides a showcase to celebrate the wide variety of very talented artists participating in this festival.

This performance promises to entertain all those who attend and showcase our local talent, cultural awareness and the pure joy of music and dance. The result will be a gift of music and thriving examples of arts in our community.

Good luck to all the performers in the 2019 Kelowna Kiwanis Festival. It will be an honour and a pleasure for the City of Kelowna to welcome those visiting our city for this special event. While you are here I know you will receive the traditional warm Kelowna welcome from our citizens, a welcome that I hope will encourage you to return.

Yours very truly,

JEFF FARAGHER

Known for diversity, innovation and passion, cellist Jeff Faragher has excited audiences and inspired students across North America and in Europe with his dynamic musical style in classical, folk and jazz genres.

Born and raised in Edmonton, Alberta, Jeff started learning music at age 3 with the Kodaly program. Shortly after he started cello with Suzuki cello teacher, Diana Nuttal. He then continued his studies in music at the University of Alberta under renowned cellist and teacher, Tanya Prochazka. With a focus on chamber music, Jeff was one of the founding members of the Pretorius String Quartet which received the prestigious Malcolm Forsyth String Quartet Scholarship four years running as they worked through their undergraduate degrees as Edmonton's foremost performing string quartet. In addition, Jeff spent many summers touring the world and studying with famous cello teachers such as Janos Starker, Aldo Parisot and Yo-Yo Ma. Following his years in Edmonton, Jeff moved to Montreal to pursue a Masters of Music degree studying with Montreal Symphony's principal cellist, Brian Manker and the Orford String Quartet founding member, Marcel Saint-Cyr.

Learning a wealth of knowledge is only the beginning. Jeff Faragher believes deeply that sharing this knowledge is of the utmost importance and is passionate about bringing his expertise to the community in a supportive, focused and fun atmosphere. Drawing from his extensive experience working with world-class instructors, he has honed a style that speaks to his students and excites them to find undiscovered heights in their playing. Over the past 20 years, Jeff's teaching career has seen him as the head cello instructor with the Edmonton Public Schools music enrichment program, director and cello instructor at St. Martin's String program, assistant string instructor and orchestra conductor at the University of Alberta, strings technique instructor at McGill University and department head of strings at the Conservatory at Grant MacEwan College.

Jeff's energy and passion for teaching has led him to create programs such as Mountainside Chamber Music in Nelson BC. He is the principal cello instructor and conductor at the Fiddleworks® summer camps, cello clinician at the Central Memorial and Bishop Carol school strings programs and is a highly sought after teacher and clinician for festivals and programs throughout Western Canada. Whatever he is doing, cellist Jeff Faragher is looking to innovate, perform and inspire his audiences, colleagues and students alike.

RUSSELL WHITEHEAD

Russell Whitehead is a professional trumpeter, conductor, recording artist and music educator. He is a recipient of a Master of Music degree in Performance from the University of Michigan where he was a student of Armando Ghitalia (Boston Symphony) and Ramone Parcells (Detroit Symphony). In addition, Mr. Whitehead completed a Bachelor of Music in Performance from the University of Saskatchewan. He has attended masterclasses with Phil Smith, New York Philharmonic, Markus Stockhausen, European recording artist, and James Thomson, Montreal Symphony, and was part of the Banff School of the Arts summer programs, studying with David Hickman of Arizona State University.

He was Principal Trumpet of the Saskatoon Symphony and often conducted the Saskatoon Symphony Core Musicians in chamber and children's shows. He has played with the Edmonton Symphony for 25+ years and was appointed Acting Principal Trumpet for the 2004-05 season. Along with a diverse solo, chamber and freelance career, Russell has been a proponent of Edmonton's New Music scene, mentoring young composers and collaborating with vanguards of the art form. 2006 saw the release of his cd Prairie Scenes, on the Arktos label. He is now a member of the quintet, Bok Brass

As a music educator, Mr. Whitehead has worked with with the University of Saskatchewan and Kings' College and is currently a sessional instructor at the University of Alberta and instructor at the MacEwan University Conservatory of Music. A clinician with Windworks, the Cantando Band Festival and MusiCamp Alberta (Summer Music Workshop), Mr. Whitehead has also adjudicated at music festivals throughout Western Canada. He continues to work with community bands and brass players in Alberta.

HELPING US TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

We take this opportunity to send out a heartfelt thank you to all of our sponsors and donors. Your generous contributions help us to continue a 93-year history of providing a community festival where amateur performing artists can perform, learn, and grow. We are also honoured to acknowledge the following supporters of the 2019 Festival!
